

Course: MC 204

Product: News Package

Student: Madison Lewis

TRT: 1:31:22

| Video  | Audio  |
|---|---|
| LS: CARS DRIVING                                    | SFX: CARS DRIVING BY  |
| CU: CIGARETTES ON THE SIDE OF THE ROAD              | NARRATION: The litter in Madison County has gotten worse over the years   |
| ECU: CIGARETTES ON THE SIDE OF THE ROAD             | NARRATION: Which leads people to wonder why it's increasing   |
| MLS: SMALL LITTERED ALLEYWAY                        | NARRATION: And what's being done to fix this problem.   |
| XLS: MADISON COUNTY BUILDING                        | NARRATION: The Resource Management Coordinator of Madison County  |
| CU: PEPSI CUP ON THE GROUND                         | NARRATION: Brandon Banks says that contributors to litter in the area   |
| LS: GARBAGE TRUCK                                   | NARRATION: Include the transportation of waste and commuters.   |
| CU: MADISON COUNTY BUILDING                         | NARRATION: In an effort to fix this problem, the Resource Management Department of Madison County established the Clean Communities program.            |
| LS: PEOPLE WALKING NEAR THE MADISON COUNTY BUILDING | NARRATION: This program provides free resources to residents of Madison County to encourage litter pick-up.   |
| CU: BOTTLE ON THE GROUND                            | NARRATION: Tom Atwood, a professor at SIUE, says that it's a good resource, but will do little good if there is no incentive provided.                  |
| MLS: INTERVIEW WITH TOM ATWOOD IN THE QUAD          | SOT: Tom AtwoodIN: I would be more impressed if...OUT: I don't think so.  |
| WS: PLASTIC BAG AND CARS IN THE BACKGROUND          | NARRATION: Meanwhile, Olivia Siegel believes that every resident in Madison County should volunteer some of their time to keep their environment clean. |
| MS: INTERVIEW WITH OLIVIA SIEGLE IN THE QUAD        | SOT: Olivia SiegelIN: I think it's an excellent...  |

|   |   |
|---|---|
| WS: TRASH AND LEAVES ON THE GROUND                         | OUT: ...Bit of their time.   |
| MLS: MADISON LEWIS IN FRONT OF THE MADISON COUNTY BUILDING | STANDUP: If you would like to get some supplies for yourself, just head to the Madison County Building. You have to fill out a form online and you have to pick up your supplies within three days. With those supplies you get a litter grabber, a vest, garbage bags, and some gloves. |
| XLS: EDWARDSVILLE DOWNTOWN INTERSECTION                    | NARRATION: To get supplies, go to the Madison County website under the planning and development tab to clean up your community. This has been Madison Lewis from MC 204.   |